Public Transport

- There are a number of bus services that stop near Prince of Wales Hospital.

  These include: 314, 316, 317, 348, 370, 372, 373, 376, 400, and M50.

- The light rail line L2 runs from Circular Quay and Central Station with the last stop outside Prince of Wales Hospital.

- For more information about planning your trip using public transport call 131 500 or use the trip planner on http://www.transportnsw.info/

Taxi

- Taxi ranks are located at both High St and Barker St entrances.

- To book a cab call:
  Taxis Combined: 133 300
  Premier Cabs: 131 017
  Wheelchair accessible taxi: 02 8332 0200

- Phones are located in the hospital foyers for your use.

Taxi Subsidy Scheme

- Transport NSW offers half price taxi transport for people with a severe disability or health condition.

- Information about this scheme can be found at http://www.transport.nsw.gov.au/customers/taxis/ttss or you may call 1800 623 724.

- If you think you are eligible for the scheme, speak to your GP about helping you with the application.

Parking at our Hospital

If you are driving to our Hospital, paid parking is available on our campus and can be accessed via our Barker Street entrance.

We also provide concessional fees for those eligible.

For more information on parking you can visit: www.parking.health.nsw.gov.au

Social Work | Oncology Team
9382 2372
Updated May 2019

NSW GOVERNMENT

Transport Options

Travelling to and from Prince of Wales Hospital

© Mitchell Johnson on Unsplash

Transport to Prince of Wales Hospital

Prince of Wales Hospital is located between High Street and Barker Street, Randwick in Sydney's Eastern Suburbs.

Our phone number is: 9382 2222

In this brochure you will find information about other transport options for getting to our Hospital.

My Aged Care Transport Options

The My Aged Care phone line and website can help you access transport services if you are over the age of 65 years.

To find our more:
- Call My Aged Care on 1800 200 422.
- Visit the My Aged Care service finder at:
  www.myagedcare.gov.au

Community Transport Options

Community transport services can take you and your carer/s to your medical appointments if:
- you are financially disadvantaged, isolated, lack public transport or have a mobility impairment
- you are an older people who is frail
- you are a person with disabilities.

Clients must request transport at least two working days in advance.

To arrange community transport, call:
- Access Sydney Community Transport: 8241 8000.
- Randwick Waverley Community Transport: 9369 5366.
- Holdsworth Community Transport: 9302 3605.
- South Eastern Community Connect: 8338 8506.

Transport for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples

If you are an Aboriginal or Torres Strait islander person over the age of 50, you can access these transport services:

Guriwal Transport

- Call My Aged Care on 1800 200 422.

Wyanga

- Based in Redfern, call: 9319 7175.

Sir Roden and Lady Cutler Foundation

- If you are ill, disabled, elderly or financially disadvantaged you can use this service.
- To book, call: 9382 2372 and ask to speak to a Social Worker who can assist you.

©A W Edwards Pty Limited

Transport to use our cancer services

If you are receiving cancer treatment or attending oncology appointments at our Hospital you can access these transport services:

Prince of Wales Oncology Bus and Nelune Foundation

- To enquire, speak with administration staff in the Oncology Department, or call 9382 5111, or ask your Social Worker.
- You need to make a booking for transport at least a day before your appointment.

Leukaemia Foundation

- If you have blood cancer, this service can take you to and from your treatment.
- To book, call: 1800 555 021.
- You need to make a booking for transport at least 48 hours before your treatment.