

Appendix

High	Medium	Low	Description	Page
•			Overweight and obesity rising fast	50
•			Diabetes escalating while other chronic disease hospitalisations plateau	52
•			Kidney disease increasing rapidly	53
•			Alcohol-related hospitalisations high in the north	54
•			High falls-related hospitalisation rates	58
•			Double the number of people with dementia by 2031	59
•			Gap in preventable hospitalisations	66
•			High rates of homelessness	72
•			Homeless people stay longer	73
•			Public Mental Health relatively under funded in SESLHD	74
•			Mental health services not matching need, gap increasing	75
•			Aboriginal communities	77
•			Aboriginal people over-represented in our hospitals	78
•			Injuries from falls increasing	95
•			Medication errors	97
•			We're spending more on health	124
•			Our hospitals are increasingly busy	127
•			Bed occupancy rates high	129
•			Potentially preventable hospitalisations increasing	132
•			Preventable hospitalisations for acute conditions on the rise	133
•			Diabetes increases hospital days for a range of conditions	134
•			Priority health risks	49
•			Chlamydia increasing sharply	55
•			Suicide rates high in inner and eastern Sydney	65
	•		Low rates of hospitalisation due to excess weight, but not for all	51
	•		Gendered violence widespread	56
	•		22,000 residents severely impaired by mental illness	57
	•		Inequities in avoidable deaths – opportunity for prevention	64
	•		Fewer GPs in areas of greatest need	67
	•		Variable private health insurance coverage	68
	•		Unemployment – an indicator of disadvantage	70
	•		Public housing density – another indicator of disadvantage	71
	•		Young people at risk	76
	•		Disproportionate activity for the Aboriginal population	79
	•		Timely antenatal care, but smoking common among Aboriginal women	80
	•		A large diverse population	82
	•		Increasing and unmet demand for health care interpreters	83
	•		Poorer birth outcomes among Culturally and Linguistically Diverse women	84
	•		Refugee population	85
	•		30,000 residents with profound or severe disability	86
	•		Population centre for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender communities	87
	•		Infection control – we know what we need to do...	92
	•		Revisits to Emergency stable overall, but vary between facilities	98
	•		Unplanned readmissions fairly stable, but variable across District	99
	•		30% of dental patients wait longer than recommended times	100
	•		Timely access to elective surgery	101
	•		Variation in procedure rates	102
	•		Mental Health patients followed up after discharge	103
	•		Mental Health patients readmitted within 28 days	104
	•		New HIV infections and more people living with HIV	116
	•		Large share of State's High Cost Complex Casemix activity	117
	•		Caring for local residents and other NSW residents	118
	•		Residents treated elsewhere	119
	•		Where do the dollars go?	125
	•		How efficient are we?	126
	•		Emergency presentations increasing	128
	•		Older patients impact on activity	130
	•		Utilisation of some procedures on the rise	131
	•	•	Avoidable deaths down	48
	•	•	Most patients accessing our services are satisfied with their care	105
	•	•	Heart, stroke deaths rates down	110
	•	•	Impact of technology	111
	•	•	Electronic Medical Record	113
	•	•	The good news: surviving cancer	114
	•	•	The tobacco control success story	115

